I. The role of renunciations in gaining spiritual freedom

In Revelation 12:11, God gives us the biblical formula for spiritual freedom.

“And they overcame him because of the blood of the Lamb and because of the word of their testimony, and they did not love their life even when faced with death.”
(Rev. 12:11; NASB)

A. The blood of the Lamb

This is the absolute foundation for all spiritual freedom from any type of bondage by the evil realm. Only the shed blood of God’s Son, the Lord Jesus Christ, can overcome and nullify the works of the devil that have brought mankind into bondage to him (Col.1:13-14; 1 John 3:8; Rev. 5:1-10).

“The Son of God appeared for this purpose, to destroy the works of the devil” (1 John 3:8b; NASB).

1. Jesus’ death was an historic event.

a. The blood of Jesus contained the life force of God Himself.

The release of this most powerful life force of all at the moment of Christ’s death caused:

- 1) A mighty earthquake
- 2) Rocks to split in two
- 3) Dead people to come out of their graves alive
- 4) The veil in the temple to be torn in two (Mat. 27:50-53).

b. Jesus Christ shed His blood for the forgiveness of our sins once for all (Rom. 6:10; Heb. 7:26-27; 9:11-12). This is a final sacrifice that never again needs to be repeated.

“For the death that He died, He died to sin once for all; but the life that He lives, He lives to God” (Rom. 6:10; NASB).

2. The shed blood of Jesus has ongoing power.

a. For the forgiveness of sins (1 John 1:6-9)

- 1) Our salvation is achieved once for all when we put our faith in the finished work of Jesus Christ on the Cross for the forgiveness of our sins.

The ongoing power of Jesus’ blood is able to transfer a person out of the kingdom of darkness into the kingdom of God whenever a person accepts Jesus by faith to be his or her personal Savior (Col. 1:13-14).

“For He rescued us from the domain of darkness, and transferred us to the kingdom of His beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins” (Col. 1:13-14; NASB).

- 2) Our ongoing fellowship with God depends on our ongoing confession of the sins we commit in our daily lives.

“But if we walk in the Light as He Himself is in the Light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus His Son cleanses us from all sin. If we say that we have no sin, we are deceiving ourselves and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, He is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness” (1 John 1:7-9; NASB).

- a) Over and over again Jesus is willing to apply His shed blood for the forgiveness of our sins as we confess them to Him.
- b) Over and over again Jesus is willing to restore our fellowship with God when we confess our sins to Him.

This includes allowing us to have direct access to the throne of the Father (Heb. 4:14-16; 10:19-22).

“Therefore, brethren, since we have confidence to enter the holy place by the blood of Jesus, by a new and living way which He inaugurated for us through the veil, that is, His flesh, and since we have a great priest over the house of God, let us draw near with a sincere heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water” (Heb. 10:19-22; NASB).

- b. For the nullification of spiritual bondages

- 1) Covenants are often sealed with blood (Ex. 24:4-8; Heb. 9:18-21), whether they are made with God or Satan.

This included the covenant that God made with His people through the Law, which was sealed with the blood of bulls.

“Moses wrote down all the words of the Lord. Then he arose early in the morning, and built an altar at the foot of the mountain with twelve pillars for the twelve tribes of Israel. He sent young men of the sons of Israel, and they offered burnt offerings and sacrificed young bulls as peace offerings to the Lord. Moses took half of the blood and put it in basins, and the other half of the blood he sprinkled on the altar. Then he took the book of the covenant and read it in the hearing of the people; and they said, ‘All that the Lord has spoken we will do, and we will be obedient!’ So Moses took the blood and sprinkled it on the people, and said, ‘Behold the blood of the covenant, which the Lord has made with you in accordance with all these words’” (Ex. 24:4-8; NASB).

- 2) Covenants can then only be nullified through a more powerful blood.

- a) Through His shed blood, Christ nullified the first covenant that He made with those who chose to follow Him and established a new covenant (Heb. 9:13-15; NASB).

“For if the blood of goats and bulls and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling those who have been defiled sanctify for the cleansing of the flesh, how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered Himself without blemish to God, cleanse your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? For this reason He is the mediator of a new covenant, so that, since a death has taken place for the redemption of the transgressions that were committed under the first covenant, those who have been called may receive the promise of the eternal inheritance” (Heb. 9:13-15; NASB).

- b) This redeemed us from the curse of the Law, which was part of the first covenant (Rom. 8:2; Gal. 3:13).

“Christ redeemed us from the curse of the Law” (Gal. 3:13a; NASB).

“For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has set you free from the law of sin and of death” (Rom. 8:2; NASB).

- 3) No blood is more powerful than the shed blood of the Lord Jesus Christ (Rev. 5:1-10).

- a) Only He, in all of God’s creation, will be worthy to open the seals of the scroll containing God’s final judgments on the earth because of the victory that He won on the Cross (Rev. 5:8-9).

“When He had taken the book, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each one holding a harp and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints. And they sang a new song, saying, ‘Worthy are You to take the book and to break its seals; for You were slain, and purchased for God with Your blood men from every tribe and tongue and people and nation ’” (Rev. 5:8-9; NASB).

- b) Every covenant and legal agreement established within the evil realm binding a person to any kind of evil spiritual entity, alliance, purpose, or destiny can be nullified by the superior blood of the Lord Jesus Christ.

B. The word of one’s testimony

When added to the shed blood of the Lamb, the word of our testimony, which is an expression of our free will, has tremendous power.

1. We are saved by adding the word of our testimony to the shed blood of the Lord Jesus Christ (Rom. 10:9-10).
 - a. Jesus’ shed blood is available for the eternal forgiveness of the sins of anyone in the world.
 - b. However, only those who personally believe and receive Jesus as their Savior, confessing Him as Lord, are saved.

“That if you confess with your mouth Jesus as Lord, and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead, you will be saved; for with the heart a person believes, resulting in righteousness, and with the mouth he confesses, resulting in salvation” (Rom. 10:9-10; NASB).

2. We are delivered from spiritual bondage by adding the word of our testimony to the shed blood of the Lord Jesus Christ (Rev. 12:11).
 - a. At the time of our salvation we are freed from the bondage that Satan put all of mankind in when Adam and Eve chose to follow his words rather than God's (Gen. 3:1-7).
 - b. Other bondages to Satan which were made by the free will choices of ourselves or our ancestors on our behalf will remain because God does not violate the free will choices of man.
 - c. Jesus' shed blood is always available to set us free from these bondages as well, but we must choose to apply it to those specific bondages, just as we did with salvation.
 - d. Renunciations are an expression of the word of our testimony in which we tell God exactly the spiritual bondages from which we want to be freed.

C. The willingness to die for one's faith and commitment to God Understanding this part of the verse and its role in overcoming Satan is the most difficult. I suggest three possibilities.

1. It demonstrates the strength of our commitment to God (Mat. 10:38-39; Rev. 2:10).

"And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. He who has found his life will lose it, and he who has lost his life for My sake will find it" (Mat. 10:38-39; NASB).

- a. Perhaps this shows the reality of our salvation.
- b. Perhaps it shows a deeper level of commitment to God that is needed for victory over the highest levels of spiritual bondage.

Once when faced with whom I believe was Lucifer himself, I could not get rid of him until I declared, "I am not afraid to die for what I am doing."

2. It demonstrates the strength of our faith in God.

- a. Scripture teaches the importance of faith in overcoming Satan (Eph. 6:16; 1 John 5:4).

"In addition to all, taking up the shield of faith with which you will be able to extinguish all the flaming arrows of the evil one" (Eph. 6:16; NASB).

- b. The ultimate test of faith in God will be seen when we are faced with death because of Him.

At that time God will give us the grace that we need to do this (Acts 7:54-60).

3. It demonstrates our freedom from Satan's control.

- a. Satan holds the power of death and desires to control us through a fear of death (Heb. 2:14-15).

- b. When we do not fear death, we demonstrate our freedom from his control.

"Therefore, since the children share in flesh and blood, He Himself likewise also partook of the same, that through death He might render powerless him who had the power of death, that is, the devil, and might free those who through fear of death were subject to slavery all their lives" (Heb. 2:14-15; NASB).

4. It demonstrates our rejection of Satan’s alternate path to everlasting life, along with divine status, and enlightenment (Gen. 3:4-5).
- a. Satan’s alternate plan for man presented in the Garden of Eden includes the promise of escaping death (Gen. 3:4).

“The serpent said to the woman, ‘You surely will not die!’” (Gen. 3:4; NASB).

This may be achieved through making a covenant with death, perhaps referred to in Isaiah 28:15, so that the person’s soul can live on in the spiritual realm after physical death.

- b. Satan’s plan involves making a covenant to avoid death whereas God’s plan involves entering a covenant that assures everlasting life by embracing death (1 Cor. 15:54-55; Phil. 1:21).

“But when this perishable will have put on the imperishable, and this mortal will have put on immortality, then will come about the saying that is written, ‘Death is swallowed up in victory. ‘O death, where is your victory? O death, where is your sting?’” (1 Cor. 15:54-55; NASB).

“For to me, to live is Christ and to die is gain” (Phil. 1:21; NASB).

II. Foundational Renunciations

The following renunciations apply to the general population and are available as free downloads on our website: rcm-usa.org. We recommend doing them as a starting place for anyone who wants to gain spiritual freedom in their lives. These particular renunciations cover broad areas of potential spiritual contamination that has infiltrated into many lives through either their own personal activities or through what has been passed down to them from previous generations. Doing these broader renunciations first will make any further, more specific or advanced ones more effective.

A. Satan’s Alternate Religious System Renunciation

In Genesis 3:4-5, Satan presented to mankind an alternate pathway to what God had offered to Adam and Eve. His pathway would include a counterfeit everlasting life (“You surely will not die!”) as well as divine status and enlightenment (“Your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God knowing good and evil.”)

The alternate religious system that Satan established encompasses many different forms and spans everything that has raised itself up against a true knowledge of God (2 Cor. 10:5). This includes all false religions and occult activities of any kind. Some are very obviously evil and some are disguised as pathways that appear to be good, thus deceiving even the elect (Prov. 14:12; Mat. 24:24).

This renunciation is thus the broadest reaching renunciation and is applicable to anyone descended from Adam and Eve, as virtually none of us have come through live untainted by the evil around us. It includes examining and renouncing the many ways one has personally interfaced with the occult realm in their lifetime.

B. Kundalini/False Holy Spirit Renunciation (provided by Amanda Buys)

As mentioned above, Satan's Alternate Religious System encompasses evil that is overtly very obviously evil as well as evil that is disguised as good. Kundalini, who is also known as the Queen of Heaven or Lucifera, is the feminine side of Lucifer and represents the beautiful side of evil, that which is camouflaged to appear to be good.

1. In the counterfeit trinity of Lucifer, Queen of Heaven, and Horus, she represents the counterfeit, or false, holy spirit. Like the False Prophet in Revelation, she can perform many miraculous acts and has infiltrated many Christian churches and movements in the US and around the world. She is a master deceiver for whom true followers of God need to be aware, lest they be deceived (Mat. 7:22-23; 24:24).

"Many will say to Me on that day, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in Your name, and in Your name cast out demons, and in Your name perform many miracles?' 'And then I will declare to them, 'I never knew you; depart from Me, you who practice lawlessness'" (Mat. 7:22-23; NASB).

2. She may be the whore of Babylon spoken of in Revelation 17 and 18.
3. Her influence is pervasive through every culture of the world.
She is known by different names in each one (Mother Earth, Isis, Diana, etc.).
4. Her power is the chi energy that underlies Yoga, Martial Arts, many Eastern alternative medical practices, and even some energy-based healing techniques.¹
5. She is the heart of the New Age Movement.
6. When she gains access to a person's life, she seems to open two energy channels that encircle the spine.
7. She forms the foundation of Freemasonry.

The 33 degrees of Freemasonry correspond to the 33 vertebrae of the spine through which Kundalini's chi energy rises to the crown chakra at the top of the head, opening one to the occult Realm of Illumination of Enlightenment and supposed union with Lucifer. This destiny is the ultimate goal of Satan's Alternate Religious System.

C. Prayer of Release for Freemasons and their Descendants (provided by Selwyn Stephens)

Freemasonry is closely related to the Babylonian Mystery Religions, which also carried the goal of uniting with Lucifer and obtaining the illumination of the gods that he promised at the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil (Gen. 3:5).

1. The process of doing so entails moving through a series of rituals, which weeds out the common people and the masses so that only the elite reach the top, or 33rd degree, and the state of illumination.
2. This progressive quest is represented by the pyramid with the light of illumination emanating from the eye at the top, as seen on our dollar bills.

¹ RCM has an article critiquing a book about energy healing and energy psychology at rcm-usa.org entitled "A Review of Sarah J. Thiessen's book Splankna: The Redemption of Energy Healing for the Kingdom of God."

3. The higher levels of Freemasonry, especially, are closely involved with Lucifer's agenda, the Illuminati, and ritual abuse.

The Illuminati, meaning "the enlightened ones," are those who have reached the 33rd degree of Freemasonry.

This is an important renunciation for anyone to do who has Freemasonry in their generational line, as the spiritual connections made by one generation are meant to be passed down to future generations. You want to be cleansed from these connections. Many people have had unusual symptoms, such as chronic back pain and nightmares, in their lives disappear after doing this renunciation.

D. Freemasonry/Kundalini Renunciation—Addendum

This renunciation includes some further spiritual disconnections that seem necessary for anyone who has Freemasonry or Kundalini involvement in their lives or past generations, which are not covered in the Kundalini and Freemasonry renunciations (both written by people other than myself).

E. Breaking the Lewis Curse

This renunciation is specifically for the firstborn sons of 33rd degree Freemasons who did not enter Freemasonry themselves. For failing to do this, they are cursed to live an unsuccessful life. This curse seems to apply to the firstborn males of successive generations of anyone whose father was a 33rd degree Mason and did not enter the Masons themselves. It is good for any first-born son to do if there has been any 33rd degree Masons in one's generational line or if they are experiencing lack of success in their lives in case this could be the cause.

F. Eastern Star Renunciation

This renunciation applies to those who had mothers or other female relatives, either living or deceased, involved in the Order of the Eastern Star, which is a female branch of Freemasonry.

G. Prayer of Release for Roman Catholics and their Descendants (provided by Selwyn Stephens)

This is a very important renunciation for anyone to do if they have had Roman Catholics in their generational line or if they are ritual abuse survivors who may have participated in rituals in a Catholic church. I really recommend it for everyone to do, as we rarely know everything that is our generational line. Like with the Freemasonry renunciation, I receive many reports of significant changes occurring in people's lives after doing it.

Let me quickly say that I believe that there are many genuine Christians in the Catholic Church. They love and have a real relationship with God and His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ and are perhaps completely unaware of the connections between the Catholic Church and Lucifer.

1. On an overt level, Roman Catholicism is involved in the worship of the Queen of Heaven (whom they view as Mary but who is really Kundalini, which is one of her great deceptions) and the forbidden pagan practice of offering prayers to the dead.

2. On a covert level, the Jesuits and the Vatican are major players in Lucifer's agenda to bring in the AntiChrist and to establish a New World Order.

H. Angel of Light Renunciation

This renunciation addresses any incident that a person may have had, knowingly or unknowingly, of being deceived by false teachers, deceptive voices, ungodly visitations, or deliberate connections to the Angel of Light, another master of deception under the authority of Lucifer. In Lucifer's Kingdom the Angel of Light seems to be connected to a very deceptive Pyramid of Nothingness. Ritual abuse survivors are sometimes deliberately connected to it.

I. Breaking Ungodly Generational Inheritances

All the grievous iniquities committed by one's previous generations carry consequences and possible curses into a person's current life (see Ex. 20:5; 34:7).

“. . . I, the Lord your God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children, on the third and the fourth generations of those who hate Me” (Ex. 20:5).

The effects of generational iniquities can be removed by standing in the gap for one's past generations to acknowledge and renounce the specific iniquities before God and asking for the removal of the resulting curses that have come into one's life because of them.

No one can escape generational iniquities, so this renunciation is beneficial for everyone to do. It, too, can have significant effects in a person's life, removing generational curses they may not have recognized as such.

We have included a long list of potential generational iniquities and curses that a person may recognize in successive generations in their ancestral lines. We recommend that ritual abuse survivors go through generational repentance for the entire list of iniquities included in these lists.

We also have a complete webinar on this subject, which includes a demonstration of how to go through the process. This can be ordered through our website under “Webinars.”

J. Breaking Ungodly Relationship Bonds (called “soul ties” by some)

When a person enters into an ungodly relationship bond with another person, a spiritual conduit is seemingly opened between their souls that allows any entities connected to darkness in the one to be able to flow to the other, along with some portion of their soul, spirit, or life force. This seems to be in keeping with 2 Corinthians 6:14-16.

“Do not be bound together with unbelievers; for what partnership have righteousness and lawlessness, or what fellowship has light with darkness? Or what harmony has Christ with Belial, or what has a believer in common with an unbeliever? Or what agreement has the temple of God with idols? For we are the temple of the living God” (2 Cor. 6:14-16a; NASB).

An ungodly relationship bond can be formed through ungodly sexual relationships, bonded financial or other secular agreements with unbelievers, or codependent relationships, to name a few possible situations. Breaking the ungodly relationship bond can bring immediate relief to distressing symptoms for a person.

K. Prayer to Cleanse the DNA

While breaking ungodly generational inheritances removes the spiritual effects of iniquity in past generations, the Prayer to Cleanse the DNA removes the physical effects that iniquity and ungodly activities in one's generational line can have on one's DNA, thus also affecting the health and well-being of the person. This is another prayer that should be done by everyone.

L. Fantasy Role Playing Renunciation

This is a detailed renunciation for those who have been caught up with fantasy role-playing games and have polluted their minds with much that is of an evil nature within them, taking delight in that which is evil, and vicariously participating in it, often connecting themselves with entities of darkness.

M. Spirit of Death Renunciation

The Spirit of Death can gain a foothold in the life of any person who has had a firsthand connection with death. This includes anyone who had parents or doctors who recommended or considered aborting them, who were attempted to be aborted, who had a mother desire or attempt suicide while he/she was in the womb, had a sibling in the womb die, or had a personal death wish or attempt at suicide during their lifetime.

N. Yoga Renunciation

Yoga is integrally entwined with Kundalini and the movement of chi energy in the body. That is the only purpose for the movements. *Yoga cannot be Christianized.*² It is a dangerous activity, innocently opening oneself to Kundalini and her chi energy. Anyone who has participated in any form of Yoga needs to do this renunciation.

O. Acupuncture Renunciation

Many alternative Eastern medical practices involve moving chi energy along various energy meridians in the body or seeking to unclog blockages in them. The benefits gained from these practices represent the deceptive white side of evil championed by Kundalini. Anyone who has received acupuncture or participated in any kind of Eastern alternative medical practice involving the manipulation of "energy" in the body needs to do this renunciation.

III. Foundational ritual abuse renunciations

The following renunciations are meant for those who have experienced ritual abuse or have had it in their generational lines. They are foundational renunciations that should be done before doing any of the advanced ones, which can be obtained by special request and approval from RCM.

In generational Satanist families much of what occurs in a survivor's life was predetermined by an ancestral covenant. Other covenants, rituals, and ungodly spiritual marriages are carried out at various times during the survivor's life with his/her own cult-involved parts. Each one seems to need to be specifically renounced.

A. Ancestral covenants

Ancestral covenants are generally established by active occultists to gain spiritual favor, power, and/or to extend their influence over future generations.

1. Breaking Ancestral Bargains/Barterers

In a bargain or barter, the ancestor gives something to get something. Usually what is given is the right for Satan to have access to someone or a part of someone or his life force in one's future generational line. In return, the ancestor seemingly gets spiritual power and/or an advancement in Lucifer's Kingdom as well as influence over the bargained descendant.

These bargains or barterers may be referred to in Revelation 18:13, which reads in the Greek as "bodies and souls of men." The context is listing the types of "cargo" that were purchased within the spiritual "business" or activities of the Whore of Babylon, which I believe represents Satan's Alternate Religious System.

2. Breaking an Ancestral Dedication

Ancestral dedications seem to be a straightforward dedication of future generations to Satan, Lucifer, or some other evil being. If the ancestor receives something in return, this is probably very similar to the ancestral bargain/barter.

3. Restoring a Stolen or Sold Birthright

This involves selling, or otherwise transferring, the birthright of a living person, or possibly persons in one's future generations, to a spiritual entity or another person. In this case the "buyer" gains a parental or generational ownership over the person.

This would seem to allow for a change in the spiritual heritage of the person, affecting generational inheritances, curses, blessings, and possibly giftings as well as giving the right to attach spirits from the "buyer's" generational line to the person and to exert control or influence over them in this way.

It is like adopting someone into a different bloodline and giving them a completely different heritage. This can be very significant in ritual abuse circles and confound the results when one does generational repentance of any kind if the generational exchange that has been made is not known. RCM has an advanced renunciation that covers more aspects of this.

4. Breaking an Ancestral Sale to an Ungodly Entity

In addition to bargains, barterers, and dedications, one's ancestors can also sell parts of the person to ungodly entities. While a ritual abuse survivor can do the above renunciations in a general way to cover the possibility of those ancestral transactions having taken place, this renunciation does not seem to be effective unless one knows and can name the specific entity involved.

5. Breaking an Ancestral Special Purpose Covenant

The types of covenants that Satanists can enter into to commit their future generations to specific purposes in Lucifer's Kingdom is extremely varied. We advise that whenever a part of the person is discovered to be playing a certain role in Lucifer's Kingdom, this renunciation should be done to cover this potential legal ground that forms the root of the bondage. It is given in a template format so that you can fill in the blanks concerning the specific role being addressed.

B. Covenants, rituals, and marriages in one's own lifetime

1. Breaking a Conception Ritual

This renunciation is intended to cover generic conception rituals made by those in the occult to affect a person's life from the time of conception. The Illuminati do very specific things in their conception rituals, which are covered in one of our advanced renunciations.

2. Breaking Satanic Holiday Rituals

The sun and moon are important heavenly bodies to Satanists, corresponding to Lucifer and the Queen of Heaven, respectively. Specific rituals are designed to honor them and to connect a person to them. These connections can cause accelerated anxiety and spiritual activity in the person around any day that marks a significant event of the sun (eclipses) or the moon (solstices, equinoxes, full moons, etc.). This renunciation has proven to be effective in breaking and ending these responses on these specific days for some ritual abuse survivors.

3. Breaking an Unholy Spiritual Marriage Covenant

Just as the angelic sons of God married human women in the Old Testament (Gen. 6:1-2), marriages to these higher-level spiritual beings and to Nephilim and Rephaim spirits can seemingly occur today.

- a. Marriage to Satan is quite common for young women in the cult, often occurring at age 13.

Sometimes these are fake marriages using a man dressed as Satan; sometimes they involve the real thing.

- b. Marriage of Heaven and Hell³

The marriage of heaven and hell is a marriage to Lucifer and Lucifera (Queen of Heaven), the male (black) and female (white) side of Lucifer. It is a powerful union creating a very deep bond to these most powerful entities in the kingdom of darkness that needs to be broken when it has occurred. It is represented by Baphomet, who is worshipped as a god but is not really a spiritual being but a created representation of the equalization of opposites.

4. Generic Ritual/Covenant Renunciation

Much of ritual abuse bondage is held together by covenants, often made within rituals. This renunciation is provided as a template that can be used to nullify any type of ritual or covenant agreement occurring at any point in one's life. It cannot be done generically but for specific rituals or covenants as one becomes aware of them.

IV. Renunciation and Affirmation Statement

This powerful spiritual statement was written by the late Tom R. Hawkins. It is a bold statement designed to be made by ritual abuse survivors when their primary identities are all unified in their allegiance to God. Tom Hawkins also recommends that it be repeated when the person has achieved complete integration.

³ We are currently in the process of updating the Marriage of Heaven and Hell Renunciation as a separate renunciation with the possible addition of Horus being involved as well as some other important dynamics.

At the end are short prayers that can be made by heads of households and those under them, declaring one's position in relationship to headship and spiritual warfare.
