A live, 2-hour, Q & A webinar with Diane will be available on Saturday, August 9 and Saturday, August 23 at noon Eastern time to give you an opportunity to ask questions.

You will receive:

- A link for each segment of the school and a password for access
- A separate link for the live Q & A webinars with Diane, which will be sent on August 7.

For our liability concerns and the commitment we have made to the survivors whose live ministry demonstrations are shown, we request that you do not share the website links that you will receive with any person other than your designated support partner.

RCM is a Christian ministry dedicated to supporting people with Dissociative Identity Disorder (DID) from a ritual abuse or non-ritual abuse background. Our teachings and materials are based on our own personal research and experience working with those affected by DID and ritual abuse. We do not guarantee any specific results or success, and you use them at your own risk.

Qualifications for Survivors

1. Survivors must have received ministry for ritual abuse for at least 6 months.
2. Survivors must obtain their therapist/prayer minister's agreement to their attendance and an assessment of their need for a support person to handle any possible reaction difficulties the survivor may experience during the school. Survivors without a therapist or prayer minister must obtain this from an approved third party.

The requirement for someone else to agree to your attendance is to assure your well-being in response to the potentially triggering material presented and to deter those coming for a wrong motive.

Even if you are approved to attend without a support person, we urge you to reach out for help if you find yourself reacting in any negative or overwhelming way to the material presented.

3. Survivors must recognize that a relationship with God will be stressed in this school and must be able to handle this.

We regret that these criteria may prevent some survivors from attending the school.

If you have any questions about qualifications, contact Sheila at information@rcm-usa.org or 540-249-9119.
